THE ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

welcome of the united society to the Presbyterians as leaders in missionary contributions among the C. E. Rev. J. Henry Barrows, D. D., of Chicago, one of the trustees of the united society, responded.

Robert E. Spear of New York delivered an eloquent address upon foreign missions. Rev. John P. Campbell of Baltimore spoke briefly upon Presbyterian loyalty. Rev. J. A. Bondholder, D. D., of Indianapolis, Ind., conducted an open parliament upon Presbyterian Christian Endeavor, and many expressions of opinion were given from the audience. Dr. Henry C. Cook of Philadelphia presented resolutions pledging loyalty to the church and authorizing the chairman to appoint a committee of nine to co-operate with the committee appointed at the last assembly upon relations of young people's societies to the church.

Rev. John Pollock of Glasgow presented the greetings of the Scottish National Christian Endeavor union. The rally adjourned at 5:15.

Though a denominational affair, the Congregational rally in Tent Williston, on the Common, was much more largely attended than the general gathering in the same place this morning. The crowd was enormous, filling all available space. W. H. Strong of Detroit presided. Geo. C. Stebbins of Brooklyn, N. Y., led the praise service.

In calling the meeting to order Chairman Strong said it was probably the largest gathering known in the world. Hon. S. B. Capen, chairman of the committee of thirteen, delivered a short address. Mr. William Shaw of Boston spoke briefly to the effect that Congregationalism did not lack wisdom. It needed fire and enthusiasm. Rev. Dwight Pratt of the Williston church of Maine, where Christian Endeavorism had its birth, said that Congregationalism was born of the struggle for free thought. It stands for an open and authoritative Bible. Rev. D. M. Fiske of Toledo spoke of the obligations of every human soul to every other human soul. Rev. A. E. Dunning, D. D., of Boston, spoke of Calvinism as teaching the intellectual freedom of every human soul. Rev. George A. Gates of Iowa spoke of Congregationalism and mental freedom. Hon. E. A. Morse of Canton spoke of Congregationalism in its relations to civil freedom and civil government. Rev. J. W. A. Close of New South Wales spoke of Christian Endeavor movements and Congregationalism in Australia. Miss Charlotte T. Sibbey of Belfast, Me., followed on "Christian Endeavorers' Duty to the Home Church." Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton on the missionary and educational spirit of Congregationalism and other addresses were made by Christian Endeavor state presidents, including Mr. Frank Page of Chicago, Thomas Jones of Missouri, A. J. Leffingwell of Iowa, Rev. A. T. Kinsey of Iowa and W. B. Wilcox of Spokane.

Tent Endeavor was even more densely crowded in the afternoon at the Baptist demonstration rally than at the morning exercises. Vocal music was plentifully supplied. Rev. H. C. Vedder of Chicago was the first speaker, taking for his topic, "Dangers to be Met With in Christian Endeavor Work." Some of his remarks were quite caustic as he pointed out the follies, conceits and other annoying things that might prove a source of injury. Rev. Clarence A. Barbour of Rochester, N. Y., in a strong, clear voice, gave an eloquent, telling address on "Good Citizenship." General T. J. Morgan, secretary of the Baptist Home Missionary society, spoke on "Home Missionary Work" and was followed by Rev. H. C. Mable, foreign secretary of the Foreign Missionary union, in a strong address on foreign missionary work.

An open parliament followed, conducted by Rev. Wayland Hoyt, D. D., of Minneapolis.

The greatest audience of the Tent Endeavor was this evening, for not only was the tent crowded, but all around the outside of the canvas, the sides of which were raised, were the masses of people. Previous to the regular exercises there were several hymns by a large chorus and the audience under the direction of Mr. Percy S. Foster of Washington. Rev. J. R. Tyler of Cleveland was the presiding officer. The program opened with a prayer and praise service led by Rev. J. R. Milligan of Allegheny, Pa., and Rev. J. H. Hardin of Cincinnati. A colored male quartet from the Hampton Institute sang very artistically two selections. Mr. W. H. Washington then told of what the committee at Washington was doing, which has in hand the arrangements for the next convention in the national capital in 1896 and mentioned some of the interesting things those who visit the city can see. Prof. James L. Howe of the Washington and Lee university then read the address of President Clarke of the United society. Then came a great speech by Mr. John G. Wooley of Chicago on "Church Resolutions versus Saloon Resolutions." The address was closely listened to and frequently applauded. The exercises closed with singing and the benediction.

A Musical Blizzard.
There was a great "musical blizzard" and a cake and ice cream festival at the Salvation army hall at the corner of Broadway and York street, last evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. Adjutant and Mrs. Merriweather led assisted by Ensign and Mrs. Escott, also Captain Balch and others.

This was Ensign and Mrs. Escott's farewell festival, and next Sunday will be their last in this city. On next Wednesday they will relinquish their positions here to their successors, who are not yet known. They will have a thirty days' furlough, and will then be ordered to another city.

Miss Annie Strobl, distributing agent for the sale of the War Cry about town, goes to her home in Pottsville, Pa. She has been here for the last eight months with Mrs. Escott, and will rejoin her when Ensign and Mrs. Escott receive their new assignment.

Will Not Marry a Russian.
Milford, July 11.—The story revived that Miss Marguerite Taylor, the daughter of Colonel Henry Taylor, the well known resident of Laurelton Hall, this town, was to marry a Russian nobleman, is without foundation. The members of the family this morning authorized a denial of the rumor.

THE RIVERIDE PARK RACES.

Attended by About Six Hundred People—Exciting Contest—The Horse Races and the Bicycle Races.

About 600 people attended the postponed horse and bicycle races at Riverside park yesterday afternoon. They were very exciting, good time being made by the winning horses. In the 250 class William Eastwick's horse was the winner; time, 2:14. The free-for-all race was won by Herbert Barnes' grey; time, 2:42. In the colt race for one-half mile a colt belonging to George Haight was successful; time, 1:26. There were ten entries.

The bicycle races added much to the interest of the occasion. In the five mile race H. W. Colwell was first and L. L. Sisson 2d; time, 13:37. The first prize in the mile race L. L. Sisson was first and N. D. Forth second. The prizes were the same as for the five mile race; time, 2:46. There were eight entries.

The special event of the day was the appearance of Miss Alice, driven by her owner, Frank P. Clark. Mr. Clark drove his horse a mile in 2:21 and later in the afternoon drove her a mile in 2:19, the half in 1:08.

GLEN ISLAND EXCURSION.
John H. Starin Sailed Away With Members of the Caledonian Club, Manchester Unity, L. O. O. F., Dorset Lodge, No. 2, and the Second Company of the Blues.

The John H. Starin sailed away on her third trip to Glen Island yesterday morning with members and friends of the New Haven Caledonian club, Manchester unity, L. O. O. F., Dorset lodge No. 2 and the Second company of the Blues. The weather in the early morning gave promise of rain and probably on that account the crowd was not so large as it otherwise would have been, but notwithstanding this fact the boat was comfortably filled when she weighed anchor and sailed away, departing to the stirring strains of the Philharmonic orchestra under the leadership of Frank Flehtl. By far the largest number of the excursionists were Scotch, the other lodges not being so largely represented by their members and their friends. Arriving at the island a pleasant hour or two were spent viewing the beauties of the island and visiting the many points of interest. The return trip was most pleasantly passed with singing and dancing. The orchestra of Dorset lodge also played a number of selections, which were greatly appreciated by all on board. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" on arriving at the dock terminated a very enjoyable trip. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Macdonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Blackie, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Kealey Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. A. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. John Hume, Mr. and Mrs. George Woods, Miss Simpson, Miss Grace Cameron, Miss Maggie Dingwall, Miss C. Griffith, Mrs. and Miss Gibson, Miss McLeod, Misses J. and A. McLean, Mrs. McNulty and Mrs. Cameron of Brooklyn.

FARMER BENNETT'S GOLD COIN.
Between $1,000 and $1,300 Taken From North Cannan Man's Safe.

Winsted, July 11.—William Bennett, a farmer of North Cannan, reported to the local police to-day that some time during the latter part of last week between $1,000 and $1,300 was stolen from the safe in his residence. The safe door was unlocked, but the inner box, where the money was kept, had been forced open with chisels. Two iron boxes containing the money, which was in gold coin, were taken. There is no clue to the robbers. Bennett lives alone with his wife on a lonely country road.

A Grand Reception to Colonel Burpee.
Waterbury, July 11.—A grand reception was given to Colonel Lucien F. Burpee, who was elected to succeed Colonel Doherty of the Second regiment at New Haven, this afternoon, upon his return to this city this evening. The train upon which Colonel Burpee arrived in this city reached here at 9 o'clock. Company G of the Second regiment was drawn up on the platform at the station with a crowd of Colonel Burpee's friends numbering over 200 as he stepped into a carriage that was in waiting and forming into line the military company, headed by the American band, started up Bank street to the armory. All along the route red flags were burned and fireworks set off and the band played "See the Conquering Hero Comes." At the armory there was a reception, which was attended by members of the local military company and Colonel Burpee's friends. There were speeches and remarks were made by the newly elected commander of the Second.

Assigned in Derby.
Derby, July 11.—Frank Rom of Birmingham, who was arrested in New Haven, charged with causing the death of Thomas Laylie, an employee of Alford's mills here, whose body was found floating in the Housatonic river two weeks ago, was brought here this afternoon and taken before Judge Platt. The case was postponed for one week to give the accused time to engage counsel. He will be taken back to New Haven jail to await trial to-morrow morning.
